PORT AGENTS ANTI-CORRUPTION ELEARNING MODULE

MACN
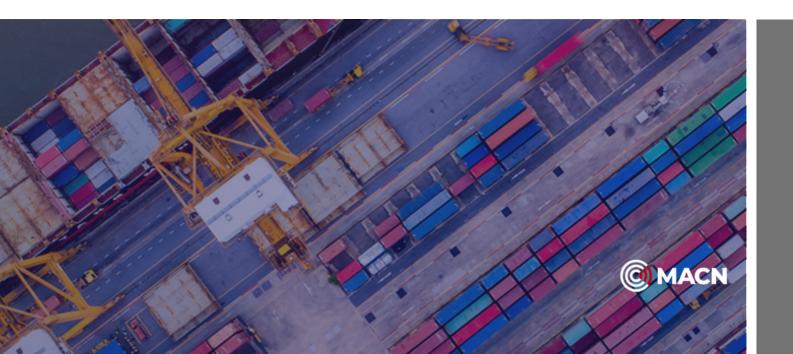

THE E-LEARNING MODULE

ABOUT MACN

Maritime Anti-Corruption Network (MACN) is a global business network dedicated to eliminating corruption in the maritime industry. MACN consists of over 190 companies from diverse segments of the maritime sector, collectively striving to curb corruption. MACN collaborates with governments, civil society organizations, and other stakeholders to promote transparency and integrity in the maritime sector and end bribery and other corrupt practices affecting the efficiency and sustainability of the global maritime supply chain.

INTRODUCTION

Corruption incurs significant financial and indirect costs, undermining fair competition, causing inefficiencies at ports, and affecting efficient trade. Corruption takes a psychological toll on maritime professionals and is associated with insecurity, criminality, and other forms of corruption both at sea and on land. This course is designed for ship agents and maritime professionals who may face corrupt demands and need strategies to mitigate and reject them.

OVERVIEW

01 — Target Audience

Port agents who support Captains, Crew, Owners, and others interested in ensuring the safe and smooth handling of vessels and interactions with authorities.

02 — Course Goals & Objectives
